Infinite Possibility

Remember, you can accomplish anything you want, anywhere in the world.

An Wei

Resilient

As you reach the end of the life of a high school student and prepare for the next stage in your journey, we all wish you all the very best for the future. We hope you take fabulous memories of BCIS and that you keep connected to the people, the place and the experiences. The world is your oyster!

Julie Lanton

Exuberant

I got to know many of you through watching enthralling volleyball games, drama and musical performances. I have witnessed a respectful and caring class navigate and successfully overcome the Covid situation to be strong and resilient young adults. All the very best to each and everyone of you.

Tom Egerton

Cheerful

As a class you have demonstrated over time an ability to take things in stride and to make the best of whatever situation you may be presented with. You have been respectful and professional in dealing with the things you don't like, and you have been cheerful and optimistic in all cases. This is a great skill to have, as in life, not everything turns out exactly the way you would like it to. Being able to wear a smile on your face and move on to whatever comes next will serve you well in university and in life and will enable you to embrace opportunities to make your world a better place for you and others as you "act for the good of all".

Mark Sullivan

Persistent

Congrats to you all on being persistent through these changing times. You are certainly ready for what comes next. Good luck!

Donald Caldwell

Alumni's message from BCIS Class of 2013 to BCIS Class of 2023.

Andy's Message:

"Find what you love and pursue that. In terms of happiness, you have to go with your gut.

Be in the present and enjoy it. College is the most formative four years in your life. If you don't spend it in figuring out who you are and what you like, you will have to make up for it down the line."

Jing's Message:

"Let Life Guide You. Things happen for a reason, and they will help prepare for the long run. All the great successes and failures are temporary, and none will matter. You will become stronger and more resilient. Life has a plan for you; follow it, and don't resist."

Eric's Message:

Stay healthy, physically and mentally.

Know yourself better, what you're good at, and what you're not.

"have a creative plan" regarding the personal development, this would help you make more deliberate decisions and continuously progress for the better.

Mona's Message:

Look into your instincts and trust them - since we are the people who know ourselves the best, not others.

It is the part that is unique to you, but many people ignore it and do what other people expect them to do.

Once a BCISer, Always a BCISer.

We welcome you to come back and visit our community, stay connected, let us witness your journeys of learning and celebrate your growth together.

Stay Connected
